

My local cable service is a necessary utility. It provides a window to the world with both TV and a Cable ISP.

Please do not reduce competition by giving the cable provider the power to lock out other ISPs. Even though I currently subscribe to my cable companies ISP service, I realize that without competition, that service would degrade and it's cost go up.

Keep competition.